For Sale: Unique, Ultra-Modern, Brand-New Villa / Mansion in Benahavís

Situated on the grounds of one of the premier golf and country clubs on the Costa del Sol, this extremely large contemporary villa has a presence that is in a class of its own: Wide spaces bordered by glass walls give way to yet more space contained only by the straight, purposeful lines the renowned architects employed to define this family home.

This mansion successfully aims to interact with its surroundings by the way of an uncluttered design, an open layout and the use of basic elements like water, glass and natural stone. Their efforts have been generously rewarded: This property exudes the warmth of a family home without losing sight of the need for daily practicalities.

Featuring no less than six bedrooms, complemented by seven bathrooms, the mansion faces south-west and sits squarely first-line golf. The property offers unobstructed views of the surrounding countryside, the Mediterranean Sea and the north of Africa beyond.

The home is controlled via an iPad over the Internet from anywhere in the world.
