Villa - Finca in a contemporary style for sale with vineyard in a secure and exclusive resort near Ronda, Costa del Sol

SOLD
HOWEVER, WE STILL HAVE A SIMILAR VILLA FOR SALE IN THIS ESTATE. PLEASE ENQUIRE.

PROPERTY HIGHLIGHTS

- Country estate with villa in a modern country style
- Own vineyard managed for you
- Part of a low profile and exclusive, gated wine resort

A unique opportunity to buy your own vineyard, estate or villa, in Spain known as: Finca, Cortijo, Hacienda or Bodega and have your own wine bottled.

Situated on a plot of more than 56.000m2 in a 200-hectare exclusive and low-profile "gated wine & country resort", amidst several natural parks.

Many of us would like to own an estate, with or without a vineyard, but can be reluctant, because estates are isolated and/or because of the work involved. Well now, this villa is just an exception to this rule!

The villa is part of a fully fenced and permanently secured resort consisting of several haciendas, where the cultivation of grapes and wine bottling will be centrally arranged for you and therefore you will be completely taken care of.

The haciendas, each with their own vineyard, are integrated in perfect harmony with the landscape, the natural ecosystem, vineyards and centuries-old oak forests.

The unique concept allows you to tune your wine to your personal taste and bottle it under your own label. (Approximately 500 bottles per year). The wines produced on the estate are of the highest quality.

Most of the fincas have been built a long time ago and sometimes they lack modern comforts or need renovation works or require a lot of maintenance, but this villa is the exception to the rule.

THE VILLA

- The villa has an open plan layout with 2 living rooms, a formal dining room and a modern fully equipped kitchen.

MORE ABOUT RONDA

As Ronda is the nearest town and as a world-famous tourist attraction nearby, we put this beautiful town in the spotlight even more. There are countless articles, guides and books written about Ronda. So you will undoubtedly find plenty of information.

The town balances on the edge of a rock massif exactly at the point where a 130-metre-deep ravine splits the mountain range in two. The ravine runs right through the town centre.

The "Puente Nuevo", a bridge built in the 18th century, connects both parts of the town centre. Bridges from the Roman and Moorish eras span the river at the lowest point of the gorge and connect the baroque-style town centre with a smaller medieval neighbourhood of mansions, ornamental gardens, the best-preserved Arab baths in Spain and the impressive city walls from the Moorish period and later fortified by order of Emperor Charles V, who also liked to visit Ronda.

In more recent times, Ronda was visited by several celebrities, including Ernest Hemingway and Orson Welles.

The northern side of the plateau on which Ronda is built contains the old town with its numerous restaurants, shopping streets, squares, beautiful parks and the impressive oldest bull arena in Spain (1804) built on the foundations of a Roman theatre.

Along the edges of the mountain massif and the ravine, leafy parks and promenades have been created from which breath-taking views of the surrounding mountain landscape and Ronda itself can be admired.

As you stroll through the squares and winding alleys of the old town, past monumental buildings, palaces and churches, new panoramas open all the time.

Ronda is small, but full of history, beauty and charm. A town to fall in love with!
